May 25, 2010, Greencastle, Ind. — After earning Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year honors, sophomore left hander Elliott Ross (left) has been named to the American Baseball Coaches Association All-Mideast Second Team.

In leading DePauw to a 26-17 overall record and a second-place finish in the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference, Ross posted an 8-2 record with a 2.64 earned run average and three saves. He appeared in 15 games including six starts and notched one complete game. In 58 innings, he allowed opponents just 51 hits for a .229 batting average and totaled 55 strikeouts and just 15 walks.

In four SCAC regular season games, he didn't allow a run in 18 1/3 innings while posting a 4-0 record and allowing just nine hits with 18 strikeouts.

DePauw third baseman Alex Wright (right) earned all-Mideast Gold Glove honors after posting a .953 fielding average with four errors in 85 chances over 42 games at the position. He also was part of four double plays during the season.
