The Cathedral and Lawrence Central high school baseball teams dominate the City and Marion County honor teams this season.

Cathedral reached the Class 4A state championship game for the second consecutive season -- losing to Fort Wayne Carroll 5-3 -- and pitcher Dillon Peters is bringing home the City Player of the Year award for the third time. Peters, who has committed to the University of Texas and was drafted by the Cleveland Indians, was 10-2 with a 1.41 ERA and struck out 155 in 792/3 innings while also hitting in the middle of the order.

He is joined by teammates Austin Boos, Mike Kseniak, Nick McCarty and Phil Mosey. Covenant Christian's Andy Gossel was selected the Coach of the Year after leading the Warriors to a regional championship game. The winners are selected in a vote of area coaches with input from The Indianapolis Star's high school sports staff.

Perry Meridian's Kyle Rupe was selected the Marion County Player of the Year after going 9-1 with two saves, a 1.25 ERA and 104 strikeouts in 611/3 innings while also hitting .486 with eight homers and 43 RBIs. Park Tudor's Courtney Whitehead is the Marion County Coach of the Year after taking the Panthers to a semistate. Lawrence Central contributed infielder Brandon Krieg, and pitchers Christian Montgomery and Jared Ruxer.
